Professor Eileen K Hutton, RM PhD

Professor Eileen Hutton, RM, PhD, is Assistant Dean in the Faculty of Health Sciences and Director of Midwifery at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario. Dr. Hutton held a part time endowed chair position from 2010-15 as Professor of Midwifery Science at Vrije University in Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Her undergraduate degree is from Queen's University School of Nursing (BNSc). Dr. Hutton is a graduate of The University of Toronto, School of Nursing (MScN) and Institute of Medical Science - Clinical Epidemiology (PhD). She was awarded the inaugural Lifetime Achievement Award by the Association of Ontario Midwives in recognition of her role in education, research and contribution to the profession. In 2016 Dr. Hutton received an Honorary Doctorate from Queen's University recognizing her contribution to the development of Canadian Midwifery.

She has published more than 125 peer-reviewed papers on a variety of topics relevant to midwifery and obstetrics including twin birth, external cephalic version, late and early clamping of the umbilical cord in term neonates, and home birth.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

- Use an evidence based approach to discussing out of hospital birth outcomes
- Recognize the role of health system support for out of hospital birth in determining outcomes
