

Obstetrics & Gynecology: Transition to Practice SA #1

Conducting scholarly work

Key Features:

- Building on the work at Foundations, this includes completing a scholarly project with dissemination of findings including data acquisition, analysis and synthesis of data, completion of a summary or manuscript, and the presentation or publication of findings.
- Achievement is based on submission of a completed project to the supervisor.

Assessment Plan:

Review of submitted scholarly project by supervisor

Use Form 4.

Collect 1 observation of achievement